

HOW TO BECOME AN SRJC CLUB:

1. OBTAIN A CLUB ADVISOR, FIND INTERESTED MEMBERS, AND ASSIGN CLUB OFFICERS:

Find a 'permanent employee of the district' to be your club advisor (college faculty or staff), find other students who would be interested in starting a club with you, and add their information to the last page of this packet.

2. CLUB DESCRIPTION:

Send an E-mail to the Inter-Club Council (ICC) Chair: srjc.icc@gmail.com and the ICC Advisor (Assistant Director of Student Affairs): dtahir@santarosa.edu with a summary of your club that you're willing to share with the public: Main Club Contact Name, Phone Number, E-mail (Club E-mail?), Facebook/ Social Media links, Club Logo, and a short description of your club. Submissions may be edited for length and clarity.

3. SUBMIT YOUR PACKET:

You'll want to make a copy of the last page of this packet for yourself (both sides), and turn in a copy to the CyBear Center on the first floor of the Bertolini Student Center

4. ATTEND THE INTER-CLUB COUNCIL (ONCE THE PAPERWORK IS COMPLETED)

Have your club's President (or designated Inter-Club Council (ICC) representative (student)) attend the next ICC meeting to give a description about your club. Then if the ICC votes in favor of activating your club ...

CONGRATULATIONS! YOU'RE A CLUB!

IMPORTANT ADDITIONAL WORK:

5. GET A ROOM FOR YOUR CLUB TO MEET:

With your club advisor's help, find a room for your club's official meeting days & times

6. ADOPT A CONSTITUTION

Your club is provided a default Constitution by the ICC, but take some time with your members to make changes and shape the constitution into something that best represents your club.

INTER-CLUB COUNCIL INFORMATION:

1. OVERSIGHT:

The Inter-Club Council is a student run body that officiates, oversees, and supports the operations of clubs. The ICC consists of one voting member from each active club, and serves as a great opportunity to network and inform other involved students on what your club is doing.

2. FINANCIAL OPPURTUNITIES:

The ICC has an operating budget funded by the Student Government Assembly. Any active Club has the opportunity to make a proposal to the ICC to access these funds. Want to go on a trip? Need some new supplies? Want to host an awesome event? Make your case at ICC and the possibilities are endless!

3. NETWORKING & STAYING CURRENT:

The ICC brings together members from every club on campus. Be the first to hear about what's going on at SRJC and get the word out about your club! When your club wants to hold a big event, you'll find that it will help to have support from the most dedicated students at SRJC.

GENERAL CLUB INFORMATION & F.A.Q.

DO WHAT YOU WANT!

Questions a lot of new clubs ask is, "Can I do this idea? Can I do that activity?" The answer is generally yes (unless it involves criminal activity). The Inter-Club Council (ICC) and SRJC are here to support you, and should always be available to you and your club to provide resources and information. At some point the administration may say "no" to you; As long as your ideas are not unreasonable, don't take it! Keep at it! Historically students have been the driving force in moving communities forward! Its one of the reasons clubs are so valuable.

GET A ROOM!

As a club, you have the opportunity to reserve a space on campus for your club meetings (inside or outside). You need to fill out a CLUB USE OF FACILITIES FORM. This process is needlessly complicated, so make sure to stay on-top of this. Check out the student lounges around campus, the Bertolini Student Center, the Cub Cave, and, specifically, The Center for Student Leadership. These rooms were created for you!

ADVERTISE:

It's important to advertise you club, and there are several ways the college and the Office of SA&EP can help in this process. Contact BearFacts to get your club's information E-mailed to all currently enrolled students. Contact the Oak Leaf student newspaper, submit posters the Student Affairs Office to get posted around campus, or make slides to show up on T.V. screens in high traffic buildings. And remember to always leave your club's contact information!

COLLEGE BENEFITS FOR BEING A CLUB:

As a part of a club and the Inter-Club Council, you are now part of the largest student representing body on campus. As such, your perspective is valuable to the SRJC.

- A more active say in college policy, Inter-Club Council, and all club affairs.
- Drawer space to keep your club items in, Mailbox for your club, and a room to meet in.
- Computer access in the Club Room.
- A Club Trust account for any money raised.
- The ability to invite speakers from off-campus, or sponsor an outside group to be on campus
- Access to Media Services, for videotaping events etc. (see the terms for payment)
- There is web-space available for you.
- Discounts at the Cybear Center.
- Free advertising for you club, in the college website, club directories, and posting areas around campus.
- Use your imagination! Clubs are an opportunity to get involved in the community, meeting new people, and learning more about the things you care about.

OBLIGATIONS:

- All official club functions need to have an advisor present.
- All official clubs must have a representative attend ICC Meetings throughout the semester.

Though it may seem like just another thing in a busy student's life, the Inter-Club Council actually serves to help clubs come together to have better events, and keep clubs up-to-date of events that your club could be a part of. Plus, it helps promote structure within clubs. The history speaks for itself: Clubs who are committed and organized enough to have one of their members attend an ICC meeting are more likely to stay around and continue to exist in the years to come.

SELLING FOOD: Just to be up front, you can't sell food you made from just anywhere. Food that comes from clubs needs to be pre-packaged or prepared in a Certified Commercial Kitchen. You may want to ask the culinary department to use their facilities, and local community centers or churches may let you have access to theirs.

WHAT ABOUT NEW MEMBERS?

When a new member joins your club, it's important to update your official roster. SAVE A COPY OF THIS ROLL SHEET, and continue to add to it as your club grows. If your club adds more members than can fit on this sheet, print out a blank copy of this page and continue there. IMPORTANT: At the end of each semester, the ICC Chair and ICC Advisor will collect these rosters to update the campus record of club involvement at SRJC. Accurate records are important to maintaining and expanding support and resources for campus clubs.
