"We're Serious About Copies"

Get involved in Student Leadership!

As a student leader you will be sent to leadership training seminars, workshops and retreats designed to expand your development as a leader!
Experience gained in student leadership roles will assist you in your career and personal development.

Associated Students Cabinet

Pioneer Hall Assembly Room • Tuesdays, 3 - 5 PM
Coordinate and execute large and small events on and off campus, such as the SRJC Flea Market and Alternative Spring Break. Actively plan and raise funds for programs sponsored by Associated Students. Gain sound administrative, accounting, marketing and event planning skills.

Student Senate

Pioneer Hall Assembly Room • Mondays, 3 - 5 PM
The Student Senate is the main legislative body of the Associated Students, and acts as the voice and decision making body of all students who attend Santa Rosa Junior College. Gain practical experience and relevant skills in administration, accounting, governance and legislative action.

Legislative Committee (LEG)

Pioneer Hall Assembly Room • Meeting time to be determined.
The Legislative Committee fosters and encourages the democratic process and political action by involving students in educational issues and legislation that affects their lives on local, state and national levels.

Petaluma Campus Life Council (CLC)

Petaluma Campus Atrium • Thursdays, 12 PM
All interested students are encouraged to get involved in Petaluma Campus activities!

Inter-Club Council (ICC)

Pioneer Hall Assembly Room • Alternate Tuesdays, 12 - 1 PM
The Inter-Club Council is the governing board of all campus clubs. Did you know that any group of students can form a club at SRJC? Come to the Student Affairs Office in Pioneer Hall or call 527-4424.
