STUDENT PRESIDENT

(United Students)

SAMUEL HAMILTON

Parking is an issue that has plagued this campus for years, students should not be required to arrive on campus an hour prior to class to find a parking spot. I am running for student body president because the students need a voice, as well as a representative that cannot be bullied by the administration. Last year summer school was cut without a word of warning from the school. I want to be our voice in order to make this campus focus on students. How many of us have had a incompetent teacher who has made us fight for a grade we have not earned? I know that I can be our leader in these issues, I served four years in the United States Marine Corps infantry honing my leadership skills. I have been to twenty different countries working with members of every diversity group and culture. I was the founding member of the JC's Psychology club and am now the acting president. I grew up in Santa rosa and always was told about the great institution that is the SRJC and I want to make it live up to that description for all present and future students.

STUDENT PRESIDENT

If elected, I hope to build upon the general student life programs to provide students with safe, engaging, and sustaining life experiences. I've worked with various departments on campus such as the Office of Student Equity and SRJC bookstore. I've been able to provide support to the student body population by working on the You Belong campaign, which is a program dedicated to assure students that they are welcome at SRJC. As a student employee, I work at the SRJC food pantry and this has enabled me to engage with both students and staff on campus giving me a clear vision of what I want to accomplish at SRJC. I want to continue increasing the resources for the food pantry, create new student life programs, and to help the Student Government Assembly be financially stable.

I would also like to share that I've volunteered as the Youth President at Faith Builders Tabernacle, a faith based organization, I've also volunteered as the Youth President at the Umoja Ni-Nguvu, which is a Kenyan community that seeks to impact and inspire Kenyans and Africans in the diaspora. I plan on using my experiences from all the above to continue to build upon the community at SRJC. My volunteering efforts have also extended to being the Vice President of the International Students club and by doing so, I've gotten the opportunity to serve not just local students, but also students from across the world.

My goal is to build upon a safe and sustainable environment for the SRJC community. Considering the current state of students, who are faced with daily struggles and challenges, I aspire to provide advice to the SRJC district to create programs that will benefit all students. I want to listen, provide support and work towards positive change and serve all students as the next student body president.

STUDENT TRUSTEE

SOPHIA PORTER

Goal: To live with purpose. To encourage others to do the same. Empowerment to all.

Confession - I keep a copy of a children's book at my desk and refer to it often -- Shel Silverstein's book The Giving Tree. All though it is a book intended for children, the lessons we learn from it are timeless. It is our first lesson of reciprocity and what happens when we neglect those things that nourish us.

My roots are here at SRJC. It is a place of knowledge, enlightenment, encouragement, empowerment, opportunity, sanctuary, safety and love. I wish to take those components and give them back to the college the best that I can, to replenish the soil that grows beautiful students and releases them into this community so our community can grow strong. I strive to keep to these core values in everything I do, and it is with great difficulty since the rewards of straying are enticing, but the rewards of maintaining that integrity are greater.

I think about our emblem at the college, our mascot, another tree - The Oak - it takes a long time to grow these trees, but they are strong, they weather the storms, resists flames, they fed the indigenous cultures that were here long before us, and they stand strong. Our students are oaklings, Let's do what we can to make sure they grow strong, make sure our community is strong, Tap into that heartwood, that center, that core, and grow from there.

This is what I strive for. This is what I wish to represent. It will be difficult. But I'm doing it. And I believe in you. Let's make positive changes on this campus happen.

If you want specifics of what I've noticed and wish to address: Social Equity and minimum wages increase, transportation to address the parking problem, waste diversion, and greening the curriculum. Peace.

DANIEL PABLO

I have experience in leadership as one of the first Latinos as a junior to serve as the Student Body President of Piner High School and I was reelected my senior year.

Aside from what I mention in my candidate statement, one of my main goals is working on providing on-campus student housing. I realize that this is a massive undertaking that will take years to fully see through, but I look forward to potentially having the opportunity to lay the groundwork for it.

My name is Daniel Pablo and as a first generation college student, I am committed to full transparency in student government. As your student trustee, I want to make sure that the student body is informed about what I'm doing on behalf of them. As a potential public servant, I truly believe in effective communication between representatives and their constituents. I've made several connections with various youth leadership groups throughout the county, and while I think I know what the student body wants, there's always more to learn. This year in particular, I have worked with Mecha to fight for a $15 minimum wage for student workers, and I plan to push this during my term. It's my dream to serve in public office, and I'm hoping that student trustee of SRJC can be one of my first steps.

I have experience in leadership as one of the first Latinos as a junior to serve as the Student Body President of Piner High School and I was reelected my senior year. My proudest achievement happened in the midst of the 2017 fires, where I helped to expand our annual toy drive and donate toys to underprivileged children who lost their homes.

Our educational center for disadvantaged students has a small library and I plan to expand the free textbooks to more lounges at the Santa Rosa campus, Southwest Center, and Petaluma campus. One of my priorities is providing guidance to students on all college matters, including how to apply for financial aid, applying for jobs and internships, and serving as a bridge between the administration and student body. I would be honored if you elected me to be your student trustee. I plan to fight as an uncompromising voice for the students on campus. Community service is my truest passion.

Elected officials do not have power. They hold power entrusted to them by the public. As a freshman in high school, I always had a great interest in world affairs and the wellbeing of the global population. I paid close attention to what was happening both here and abroad, and I dedicated my time to learning as much as I could about our diverse and beautiful Earth. I had not felt called to action to get into government, however, until the divisive election of 2016. I realized that if I wished to see leadership that truly represented me and my community, I might have to step in and fight for those who cannot fight for themselves. I was truly inspired when I witnessed my community come together in the aftermath of President Trump's election. Despite the hatred and prejudice plaguing our nation, I saw that such intolerance had no place here or anywhere. I vowed that I would do my best to truly represent the people and their best interests, not purely my own. Admittedly, I am new to student government. I think this is advantageous, however, as I believe that I can bring a fresh and needed perspective to our college leadership.

As your Student Trustee, I personally promise that anything and everything that I do will be representative of you and the will of the SRJC student body. I keep my word. With your trust placed in me, I intend to do you proud.

Los oficiales electos no tienen poder. Tienen el poder que les confía el público. Como su administrador estudiantil, personalmente prometo que todo lo que haga será representativo de usted y de la voluntad del cuerpo estudiantil de SRJC. Mantengo mi palabra. Con tu confianza puesta en mí, tengo la intención de hacerte sentir orgulloso.

STUDENT TRUSTEE

MAGALY AGUILAR ALVAREZ

I am hoping to be the new Student Trustee because it has come to my attention that there is not enough diversity on our Board of Trustees. I have walked past the pictures of the Board of Trustees hundreds of times in the months of being a student here at the Santa Rosa Junior College and it was not until I spoke to one of the boards of trustees, Mariana Martinez, that I noticed the lack of diversity. According to the SRJC Factbook on its website, out of eight of the trustees, only two are women and there are only two Latinos. As of 2013 Latinos are the second highest percentage of students enrolled at the SRJC from the seven ethnic groups that attend the SRJC, and yet only two members represent us. In the same year, over half of the students enrolled at the SRJC were women while only less than half were male. Yet the board of trustees is made up of mostly white males.

The facts are there and yet, no one has brought to the attention that only four people represent two of the biggest groups that make up this college while the rest are white males. The JC prides itself in being diverse and I think that to be truly diverse we need to start from the top of the chain of command; how can we say our school is diverse when there are only two people of color and two women are on the board? In addition to the lack of diversity on the board, there are many issues that students have brought up but are continuously ignored or are not kept up to date and I want to change that. I want to be a student trustee because I want to represent all people of color and women. I want them to be heard and I want to be their voice.

EXECUTIVE VP OF LEGISLATION

SEAN YOUNG

ALEX DUGGAN

(UNITED STUDENTS)

Hi, my name is Sean Young and I am running for reelection for the position of Executive Vice President of Legislation. You might be asking what exactly does the Executive Vice President of Legislation do.

Some of my responsibilities as Executive Vice President Of Legislation is appointing student to serve on College-Wide Committees, as well as, providing support for students involved in being advocates for a variety of different issues. It is my passion to help student know their rights and how they need to be protected and be awareness of policies, legislation, and issues affecting students' welfare at the state, within local government, and at college level.

In this ever-changing world, it is more important than ever to get your voices heard, so make sure to go vote!!

VICE PRESIDENT OF FINANCE

DUGGAN

Students of the Santa Rosa Junior College, hello! My name is Alexander Duggan and I am one of the candidates running for the position of Executive Vice President of Legislation for this 2019 school year. First things first, a little bit about myself. I am a graduate of Montgomery High School class of 2018 and I am currently studying here at the JC for an associate's degree in Political Science. I am hoping to take this degree and transfer to a four year university to obtain my bachelor's degree in Political Science with a focus in either International Relations or Public Service. The reason I am running for the position of Executive Vice President of Legislation is simple: to provide the students of the Santa Rosa Junior College with a politically interested representative to fight for their best interests in legislation related conferences. If chosen, I will faithfully represent ALL students of this beautiful college with dignity and extreme loyalty, ensuring that the interests of all students are taken into consideration before any decision is made. I will be certain to make ample time for students to speak with me personally to voice their opinions on all topics and will make sure to take EVERY opinion into account before presenting ideas to the rest of the elected officers. Thank you for taking the time out of your day to consider me for this position, I hope you have a lovely year! Cheers!

My name is Alex Hays and I am a first year student here at the SRJC. I come from Santa Rosa High School as someone who wants to make a change in the lives of others. I have been heavily involved in local politics, attending rallies, discussing issues and having a need to understand the consensus among SRJC students. I believe that by running for the position of VP of Finances, I can make a change in the lives of those on this campus. The most important thing when running for office is understanding your base. Investing in the community, whether it be through sports, art, theater, or the subject you find most interesting, that is what I value and I hope you share the same sentiment. (cont.)

MCGRAHAN

If elected Vice President of Student Life, my main goal will be engagement: between students, campuses, clubs and our community. I strongly believe if we are more engaged with our campus, peers and community—we will all benefit from the outcome. I also believe if we are more involved politically and socially we will effectively create change in laws and policies that directly impact us. As the former Editor-in-Chief and current Managing Editor of the Oak Leaf, I have been witness to the inefficiency of our government officials and if elected, I want to use student feedback to create the change we desire. Student participation and engagement are one of the many factors that separate our Junior College from the rest and I intend to use the collective student voice to influence change and create awareness where it is needed. I became a journalist to give a voice to the voiceless and empower those whose voices aren't being heard. A vote for me is not just a chance to be heard, but a chance to use your voice to create change.

ALEX HAYS
FINANCE

The most important skill to me that I value in a candidate is transparency and honesty. I want to inform the general public on where our finances are going, what students should be paying attention to, and generally anything around the budget, student life and more. I love just being involved and hearing what students have to say. Sometimes, it feels good to just listen, instead of constantly throwing out my own ideas.

Though I have only been attending here full time for two semesters now, I have been taking classes here ever since I entered high school. I am dedicated to serving the student body, and serving them right. I hope you will choose me as your VP of Finances. Thank you!

VP OF STUDENT LIFE, PETALUMA

M E E A UNITED MCMATH STUDENTS

My name is Meea McMath, and I am a second year student at SRJC. I am a digital filmmaking major and am two classes away from attaining my associate's degree. Soon after I plan to attend a four year university. For this election, I am looking forward to running for the Vice President of Student Life. I have been involved in many activities while I have attended SRJC and am always looking for new opportunities, moments of growth, and hearing people's stories. Something that has always been rewarding to see at SRJC is the diversity and value we put into our student life. I have always been in full support of the time and effort it takes our student representatives to create all of the events and gatherings we have on all campuses. There would be nothing I would like more than to be involved in the same way! Thus far, I have participated in the SRJC Symphonic Band, helped create a promotional video for the department, worked with distance education to gather opinions on our online learning programs, helped faculty and students in media services, and have been highly involved with Student Affairs to make this year's Student Film Festival possible. As a candidate for Vice President of Student Life I would really like to hear the stories of my peers and succeed in making others' visions possible.

VP OF MARKETING, PETALUMA

Livier De
S La Torre

Santa Rosa Junior College has given me one of the greatest learning experiences of my life. I am studying the business administration and am currently on my way to finishing fifteen more units full of Calculus, Economics, Business, and English. The gratitude I have for this school is almost unimaginable, which is why there is nothing I would love more than to represent the community of students that create such a wonderful learning environment. Coming from a family of hard working immigrant parents who had little formal education available, I understand the value of education and a fulfilling environment, whole heartedly. I know many of my fellow peers feel the same way; therefore, if I am elected Vice President of Marketing for Petaluma, I vow to do everything in my power to make the most out of my position. By voting for Livier De La Torre, you are voting for greater school life and a passionate representative.

Yo a tenido una de las mejores experiencias de mi vida en el colegio de Santa Rosa. En este momento, estoy estudiando cálculo, la economía, administración de negocios, y inglés. La gratitude que tengo para esta escuela es imaginable. Por esa razón, yo quiero representar a esta comunidad de estudiantes que forman esta escuela tan espectacular. Yo soy de una familia con padres que son inmigrantes y muy trabajadores. Ellos no tuvieron la oportunidad de estudiar, y por esta razón, entiendo el gran valor de la educación. Reconozco que la educación y el ambiente de la escuela es la prioridad de muchos de mis compañeros entonces, juro que si me eligen para vicepresidenta de mercadotecnia, usare todo el potencial de mi posición para mejorar la escuela. Un voto po Livier De La Torre, significa un voto para una escuela mayor y un representante genial.

My goals consist of enforcing equality amongst all students, which includes ensuring that all voices are heard and that all students are equally represented within the SRJC community. Additionally, I will make sure to work closely and collaboratively with my fellow student government committees, as well as working with the variation in clubs within SRJC to develop any necessary change where change is needed in order to develop, and maintain a diverse community within SRJC

Having the privilege to become your VP of Diversity Affairs would be an honor. As a social work major, I've found that both diversity and human connection are the main components for human growth, as well as the main driving forces for creating equality within communities, as they allow for empathy and understanding. However, in all reality, not all institutions, clubs, communities, and etc. emphasize the crucial value of both diversity and human connection. With this reality in consideration, I am determined and prepared to change this in the form of holding any and all select groups accountable in the situation that students voices aren't being heard. I stand with the belief that all voices should have the platform that they deserve as every person has the right to be equally represented! Not only will I aim to ensure the representation of all students within SRJC, I will also aim to educate our surrounding communities in the form of reaching out to our youth in middle schools, high schools, and etc. in an effort to expand the truth that every student is capable of being the programmer they want to be, the doctor they wish to become, or the teacher they see themselves as. I believe that every student should be able to confidently view themselves within any job or career that they wish to pursue! As VP of Diversity Affairs, I not only wish to influence growth within SRJC, but within my myself as well. Diversity is not only beautiful in it of itself - it's a driving force within our society that allows for individuality, as well as provides a precursor for growth and progression. I intend of emphasizing this truth throughout all platforms within SRJC with the help of my fellow student government members!

CONSTANCE TANNER

Constance Tanner is in her fifth semester at Santa Rosa Junior College where she is majoring in AODS, Advocacy, and Social & Behavioral Sciences. Upon receiving her AA she will transfer to Sonoma State to receive a BA in Social & Behavioral Sciences. Constance aspires to pursue a career as an alcohol & drug counselor and advocate until she receives her degree in Social & Behavioral Sciences where she will then work as a probation officer. When she is not busy being a full time student, wife and mother, she enjoys drawing in her free time. She also enjoys being a socialite and dancing. She is very dependable, organized, and is great at time management. She has a positive attitude and willingness to learn. Those reasons and more are why she would make a great Student Government member. What will make her a great Vice President of Diversity is that she is diverse in many ways, one being that she is African American. Being the voice of diversity is important to Constance. She is also bisexual and can serve the LGBTQ community. As a counselor it is important to be multi-culturally competent and serving as the Vice President of Diversity will give her more skills, experience, and knowledge entering her career.

My name is Sebastian Bustamante I have been part of SRJC as a student, employee and have been involved in collegiate events for a few years Throughout my years at SRJC I have learned the necessary skills to be a great VP of Diversity while a member of MEChA, Puente, Undocumented Student

SEBASTIAN BUSTAMANTE

Union, MX, and Student Success Coach. I will commit to listening to everyone and find the best way to help students express themselves at the SRJC. Representation is priority on all campuses and I will focus on always assisting all groups. I am amazed and proud of the groups that are putting on events, doing outreach to students and are making their presence known to the Sonoma County as a whole. Thank you for time and vote Sebastian for VP of Diversity.

(ROSEBUDS)

Student Health

Mary Cabrera

Many college students know that balancing education, jobs, family, and other responsibilities becomes very challenging. Not only that, but maintaining physical and mental health is also an important aspect to becoming a successful student. If elected Vice President of Student Health, my goal is to create programs that will allow easy access to different outlets that will help balance a healthy mind, body, and life. Health impacts so many people on a day to day basis, and I've seen how this can affect one's life and education. Promoting awareness and providing the necessary knowledge on how to maintain a stable health is what we need as a community. Our Student Health Services provides our SRJC community just that. However, as VP of Student Health, I want to voice all the different outlets they have and work with them to build more programs that will supply our student body more access to reach the goal of maintaining a healthy lifestyle. In addition, I want to become a safe outlet that is available for students to reach out to when needed. I plan on dedicating office hours as time for students to reach out and discuss any necessary situations, whether it is related to health issues or chemistry homework. As your VP of Student Health, I want to become the backbone of your successful college career and I am ready to be dedicated and be the official liaison for your health and our SRJC community.

VP OF SUSTAINABILITY

SOFIA TECPOYOTL-RAMOS

My name is Sofia Tecpoyotl-Ramos and I would be honored to have the privilege to be your V.P of Sustainability. I, like a lot of you, am a first generation college student of color, and I am currently in my second year here at the Santa Rosa Junior College and majoring in Political Science/International Relations. I have many passions that I am proud of, and one being my passion for sustainability. I believe sustainability is an extremely overlooked position that we have here at the SRJC. And as a current Student Ambassador who works to help students, I have seen first hand how the way we take care of our environment impacts our campus and students. The SRJC is one of few junior college campuses in California that offers a student position that allows the student body to try to actively to make the college 100% sustainable. And I think that is extremely motivating and overall amazing considering our current environmental and political climate. I think it is more important now than ever to try to come up with ways to try to save our Earth, its people, culture and everything that comes with it from the damage that is created from climate change. I personally believe that if our government officials will not do anything about the current climate change, it is important as a people to try to save it as much as possible. Although we are a relatively small campus, I wholeheartedly believe we can still make a difference with the actions we take as a campus. I pledge to try my absolute best to hear out and work with the students, school and community to try to create a more sustainable home from home both socially and environmentally. Your concerns and opinions about our campus sustainability is important, so please voice them and allow me to take action.

VP OF CLUBS, PETALUMA

CLAUDIA PATRICIA MURALLES

My name is Claudia Muralles. I was born in Guatemala City, and have been living in United states since 1993. I am a returning student at SRJC, and since I have been enrolled, I have had the opportunity to get involved in several areas of our beautiful college. I have been part of the Puente Community since 2014. I am part of MESA (Mathematics, Engineering, Science, Achievement), a support program for students majoring in STEM fields. I founded the Petaluma Multicultural Dancing Club in 2016 and I have been a volunteer Tutor at the Tutorial Center on the Petaluma

Campus. Currently, I am a Student Leader at Our House Intercultural Center at the Petaluma Campus. In this position I have been able to plan events such as: Go Green with SRJC Petaluma, Best Sustainability Practices, and Café con Pan, which was aimed to evening students. SRJC Petaluma is my second home. I have submerged myself in all possible events, activities, and programs. Since I have been attending SRJC I have seen the growth in the Petaluma Campus, but I also recognize that there is still much to do. As your VP of Clubs I plan to bring back Club Days or MAD Wednesdays. I would like to raise sustainability awareness among clubs. However, my biggest goal is to encourage students to create new clubs with non-traditional meeting times or activities, like a hiking club, gardening, or parents club. Please reach out to me if you have any ideas, or would like to get involved.
