VII. SPECIAL PUBLIC FORUM: DECISION TO CUT SUMMER CLASSES

Comments: Names of people are not require and therefore some were not included.

Vivian Hilton - Cutting classes this summer would negatively impact financial aid for students who need a certain amount of units to be reward waivers and scholarship.

McKenna Peterson: What is the SGA's stand and what can the SGA do?

Nick Jones: Transfer student will be behind in upward division transfer classes.

Jorge Romero(Student): Does not want one person deciding on the education offered at SRJC.

- Admins have too much power when it comes to the distribution of wealth. Wants more access for the rest of the SRJC to have a say in where the money goes.

Micky(Petaluma student, employee) Feels it is very irresponsible & neglectful of how Dr. Chong & Mary Kay informed the SRJC community about their decision to cut down the summer schedule.

Unknown: We pay to come here and I want to know what is going on.

Ursula: Attends SRJC to advance in the socioeconomic ladder. Wants to lift her son and herself out of poverty. Cancellation of summer classes halts her degree process because her required classes were cancelled. "We cannot allow them to hammer the final nail on the coffin of education."

Annamaria(VP of Marketing) - "Its more about the money issues." Admins take a pay raise and cut faculty's and summer classes.

- Was able to enroll for summer/fall.
- Wants to focus on getting the voice from our community to the admins > Where does the money go?

Donna Larsen - The board is remarkably out of touch with the current student body,

Alexa Forrester(Faculty) - The last areas to cut from should be the class schedule and programs that assist students. The actions taken by Dr. Chong call for an entire college reorg and elimination of programs in the long run.

Unknown: Who told you that we needed summer classes to be cut Dr. Chong?

Dr. Chong: We're spending more than we are bringing in. The state in currently offering the money we need. We will be more transparent and inclusive on these decision.

Will keep cuts away from classes and programs. But the general funds are not enough to cover all classes.

McKenna Peterson: How will you make the decision to keep the classes or not? Can this be a guarantee? What about students who already registered? (Priority 1, began April 1st!)

Dr. Chong: Not going to reduce summer classes FULLY. It will be definitive on Wednesday and it will be communicated to students.

Unknown: Is summer when we make the most money?

Dr. Chong: Typically, yes. A proposal to receive an amount of money equaling to the number of 19,445 students for several years(3 - 5) has been sent to the Chancellor's office. Waiting to hear a response.

(VP of Committees)This would negate the enrolling issue for the number years given. Btw, Classes that have less than 20 students enrolled can be cancelled. This has been the metric of canceling classes, and will most likely be the way it is managed this year.

Unknown: Wouldn't cutting classes add to our low enrollment?

Dr. Chong: We are now looking at class reduction, depending on demand. No reason to offer the courses if there is not interest. Can't start new programs, if low enrollment programs are not cut.

McKenna Peterson: So, we are cutting classes because we will receive the funds equaling to 19,445 students? Dr.Chong: Yes, but the approval is not guaranteed.

Dori(Vp of Student life): Why weren't students consulted about classes being cut?

Dr. Chong: We will be committed to to working closer with the students to prevent this from happening again.

Alexia(VP of Advocacy): Keep us in the loop about making decision that are going to affect the students directly.

Dr. Chong: "Don't listen to what I say, look at what I do."

Stephannie(Vp of diversity): Keep in mind for marginalized people, it is not about the number, you're dealing with people's lives. Dr. Chong: As a person of color, child of immigrants, not too far from reality. This won't happen again.

Dr. Michael Hale (Faculty)

Many people in his union have challenged the number of the 6 million deficit.

What can we do, Dr. Chong, to look at the same numbers? (Referring to the budget crisis)

Dr. Chong: Share governance is going to be practiced heavily from now on. Will pay students to continue to attend the meetings to be included in the conversation.

Unknown: Faithful upright - The cancellation of summer classes will affect graduation for many students.

Unknown: Will a vote of no confidence be discussed in SGA?

No response.

Unknown: The committee structure is confusing. The value of committees is not being understood.

Suggestion: Lets have an annual report to better communicate and be more transparent.

Kevin Swanson: (Student) Will we be paid in dollar amount the equivalent to having 19,445 students over the next 5 years. Dr. Chong: It is tentative, we will share the response.

Unknown: What is the point of keeping the current administration?

Dr. Chong: I will stand with my team. They're a competent group of people. Will take the responsibility for his mistakes.

Sean Young(student): Parents always said that the way to be successful is through education.

Unknown: Why wasn't a letter sent to all students from Dr. Chong informing them about this decision? Dr.CHong: No direct response. He admits to making a mistake.

Alexa Forester: We are in a position where we can shut down the college & walk away with all the money, if we are given the amount equating to 19,445 students. "I don't have the stomach to deal with this creative accounting." (Referring to cutting summer classes)

Unknown: Why do you and your team get paid so much?

- Dr. Chong went on to say that he has earn his pay. The pay scale for jobs like theirs have certain competitive salaries.

Unknown: Can you and your board be fired?

Dr. Chong: We are all accountable to each other and the board. (The board of trustees. The board is unpaid)

Micky (Petaluma student, employee): Loves this college. Grandfather taught here. Communication is key to any relationship. If we are going to continue another 100 years, transparency & communication is dire to our success at SRJC.

Ian Mauer: Acknowledged apology. This was a poorly conceived idea. This has had a traumatic response on people. How is SRJC going to compensate for this? To Dr. Chong: You are highly paid.

Dr. Chong: Just because I am highly paid does not mean I have all the answers."

McKenna Peterson: Your job is about serving students, when your job doesn't secure student success, it is not meeting your requirements. You've had a long road to reach your education, but when you take actions that are hurting students it doesn't show your commitment to students.

Nickolas William(student) - What guarantee do we have that in the future, when the schedule come out, the schedule won't be edited?

Dr. Chong(President)- Only when funding isn't available the schedule is revisited and edited. (No real guarantee was discuss)

Mary-ann - When she lost her home, SRJC community helped her. Wants community spirit.

Sophia - Lets bring outsider auditors to prevent budget crisis like these.

- Let's consider a difference metric of defining success, and not only measured by completion rate.

Motion to extend meeting by 40 min. Meeting will end at 5:40 P.M. NO OBJECTIONS.

LEAD/FOLLOW-THROUGH: EVELYN NAVARRO MOTION: SECOND:

Dori: Sees that Dr. Chong is having a hard time with this. We need to continue the conversation. Lost trust in the administration. "We can't give them a break." "I want this college to be here for my future people."

Josh: "One thing I hate is that a lot of the discussion is based on philosophy." Cautions to go into an issue only focused on feelings. "Use if then statement."

Zack: Not deciding on what to do(Strategy), but to decide on a stand and recommendations.
