- A. A motion may come forward to plan for the “Are you Ready for Me” event and fund it for $1,100 to be used for giveaways such as a Nintendo Switch, pizza delivery, edible arrangements.

Lead: Michael Vu & Delashay Benson

Are you ready for me? Making SRJC a Student Ready College

Event scheduled for Monday, 12/6, 4pm - 6pm. Event is focused on the experiences of marginalized students. Facilitated by Anetra McCartney, SGA Student Trustee. Town hall setting. Listening session. Student panelists will answer questions about making SRJC STUDENT READY. This is part of SGA’s engagement with academic departments.

Discussion questions:

- Should the event be “open mic”? Or closed session? No
- How can we encourage senior leadership and faculty to attend? And stay in listening mode. Scheduled at a time that’s already designated for shared governance.
- Funding needs for the event: s
  - Student Life to fund speakers: Zack Miranda to help facilitate.
  - Opportunity drawing for prizes possible incentives:
    - Delivery food
    - Nintendo switch
    - AirPods
    - Bookstore voucher

Event date was updated to 12/6, same time. During SGA Student Life, Equity, and Engagement is paying for student speakers (Zack to process). Committee had a clarifying discussion on the use of funds are now meant to incentivize participation for this important event.

Purpose is to draw in students. How can these “investments” be leveraged or maximized in the effort to promote and engage students?

- Ask Delashay to include in her promo
- Create a flyer of SLC sponsored events?

Or highlight all the ways students can ‘earn’ prizes? Include the SLC logo.

Discussion on possible types of opportunity drawing. Bikes, skateboards, (sustainable transportation?) Bike, helmet/pads, and lock. Consideration of expenses, accessibility. Discussion on offering choice of prize.

Fund Amount: $1100

VII. Adjournment: End Time: 3:00pm

We acknowledge that we gather at Santa Rosa Junior College on the territorial traditional land of the Pomo People in Santa Rosa and the Coast Miwok People in Petaluma, past and present, and honor with gratitude the land itself and the people who have stewarded it throughout the generations. This land acknowledgement calls us to commit to continuing to learn how to be better stewards of the land we inhabit. We recognize that every member of the Santa Rosa Junior College community has benefitted, and continues to benefit, from the use and occupation of this land since the institution's founding in 1919. Consistent with our values of community and diversity, we have a responsibility to acknowledge and make visible the colleges' relationship to Native peoples. By offering this Land Acknowledgement, we affirm Indigenous sovereignty and will work to hold Santa Rosa Junior College more accountable to the needs of American Indian and Indigenous peoples.
